USE OF A REPRESENTATIVE

You do not need to hire a representative, it is your choice. No one can guarantee the approval of your application. All the forms and information that you need to apply are available for free at www.cic.gc.ca.

A representative is someone who has provided advice or guidance to you at any stage of the application process, whether that person received consideration (i.e. compensation) or not. Following the submission of your application, that person may conduct business on your behalf with Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) and the Canada Border Services Agency (CBSA) if you appoint them as your representative by filling out this form. The preceding includes Express Entry submissions. You may have one representative only per application. If you appoint an additional representative, the previous representative will no longer be authorized to conduct business on your behalf and receive information on your case file.

Note: You must use this form to appoint a paid or unpaid representative to conduct business with IRCC or the CBSA on your behalf. You must also use this form to: 1. notify IRCC if your representative's contact information changes, 2. if you wish to cancel the appointment of your current representative and represent yourself, or, 3. if you wish to cancel the appointment of your current representative and appoint a new representative Warning! It is a serious offence to give false or misleading information on this form.

Personal information provided on this form is collected by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) under the authority of the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act (IRPA) and of the Citizenship Act. The personal information of the applicant is used for identification and authorization purposes. The personal information of the immigration representative is used to verify that the representative is authorized to offer representation services according to the provisions of IRPA and of the Citizenship Act.

The personal information of both the applicant and the representative may be disclosed to other federal government institutions, non-governmental and intergovernmental organizations, regulatory bodies, investigative bodies, and provincial/territorial governments for the purposes of validating identity, information, and supporting an investigation.

Personal information of both the applicant and the representative may be used for other purposes including research, statistics, program and policy evaluation, internal audit, compliance, risk management, strategy development and reporting.

Failure to complete the form in full will result in a delay to processing. The Privacy Act gives individuals the right of access to, protection, and correction of their personal information. If you are not satisfied with the manner in which IRCC handles your personal information, you may exercise your right to file a complaint to the Office of the Privacy Commissioner of Canada. The collection, use, disclosure and retention of your personal information is further described in IRCC's Personal Information Bank - IRCC PPU 013, 042, 054, 068.
